Lee's Opera House, - Fredericton.

BRENNAN & QUINN'S

STAR THEATRE

To-Night To-Night

The Great Western Play, in five acts, entitled

The Danites!

Alexander agee, called Sandy		Mr. T. J. Quinn
William Wise, the Judge		Mr. H. R. Brennan
Charles Godfrey, the Parson		Mr. C. A. Pr[illegible]
Washie, Washie, the Chinaman		Mr. W. C. Whitlock
Alphonso Grosvenor, Limber Tim		Mr. A. J. Cole
Grasshoper Jacks		Mr. H. White
Bill Hickman	the Danites	Mr. A. Wilson
Hezekia Carterh	the Danites	Mr. C. Russell
Nancy Williams, the last of a doomed race		Miss Florence Lytelle
Billy Piper, the unknown		Miss Annie L. Patt
Huldah Brown, the "widder"		Miss Minnie DeLange
Capt. Tommy		Miss Florence Libby
Bunker Hill		Little Katie Patt
Georgia

Synopsis:—Act 1—Foot of the Sierras. Early Morning. Nancy Williams' Story. The Danite's shot. Act 2—Howling Wilderness. The arrival of the widow. "Married mum?" Act 3—Heart of the Sierras. The Parson's Threat. "Let me pray." Act 4—Sandy's Cabin. Little Half Pint. The Miner's congratulations. Act 5—Billy Piper's Cabin. The Danites' fate. Denouement.

☞ This is one of the most interesting Dramas ever produced on the American stage, and is full of fun from beginning to end.

THE PERFORMANCE WILL CONCLUDE WITH

A Laughable Farce.

ADMISSION 20cents. RESERVED SEATS, 30cents.

GRAND MATINEE

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Performance equally as good as at night.